

Developing global citizens stakeholder event

The Developing Global Citizens Team at Learning and Teaching Scotland (LTS) has responsibility for developing and promoting global citizenship within Curriculum for Excellence and provides guidance, professional development activities and resources to practitioners, schools and local authorities to support the development of whole-school approaches to global citizenship.

Developing Global Citizens incorporates a number of elements and contexts for learning including international education, sustainable development education, education for citizenship, games legacy, Confucius Classroom Hubs and Scotland's culture and heritage.

LTS recognises the significant contribution and impact made by stakeholder organisations to this area of work and is keen to explore opportunities for further collaboration and partnerships.

Purpose of the event

This event provides an important opportunity for LTS staff and stakeholders to come together, share their vision for the development of global citizenship and learn more about each other activities. Delegates will also have the opportunity to:

- Learn about embedding global citizenship within Curriculum for Excellence
- Discuss approaches to delivering a whole-school approach to developing global citizens
- Identify opportunities for developing collaborations and partnerships
- View global citizenship resources recently developed by LTS
- Learn about the use of Glow in delivering professional development activities and supporting networks

Who should attend?

Representatives from:

- Non-governmental and community-based organisations
- Associated public sector organisations
- Further and higher education institutions
- Other DGC stakeholders
